Clay Garden Flowers I & II with Evy Thuli

Saturday, June 1, 9am-12pm Part I
Saturday, June 8, 9am-12pm Part II

Use simple clay hand building techniques to create unique flowers to add to your summer garden! Bring photo ideas to add texture and details to make them real. Join us in the part II session to complete your art with acrylic paints and sealer to preserve your colorful sculpture. These will never wilt! All ages.

Stained Glass Stepping Stones with Kathy King

Friday, June 14, 9am-12pm

Dress up your garden with colorful stained glass in concrete stones. You choose and design the shape. Fast setting concrete allows pieces to go home the same day. All ages.

Batik with Nancy Huffman

Wednesday, July 10, 5-8pm

Explore the ancient technique of using hot wax and bright colored dyes to make beautiful colorful "one of a kind" art on cotton fabric. You choose the size and subject. Ages 9 and up

Clay Critters I & II with Ash Kyrie

*Saturday, July 13, 9am-12pm Part I
Saturday, July 20, 9am-11am Part II*

Learn in simple steps how to model clay into whimsical critters real or imaginary. Return the following week to add colors and patterns using acrylic paint. All ages.

Shibori with Julie Olsen

Saturday, July 13, 1-4pm

Shibori is a Japanese manual resist dyeing technique, which produces patterns on fabric. Create your own patterns using cotton rectangles, perfect to serve as a placemat or runner. All ages.

Story Scapes
with Julie Olsen

Monday, July 15, 5-7pm

Make your story scape with fabric showing your most valued things, places or your dreams! These make great pillows, placemats or framed art. Teens and up.

Found Objects Assemblage Art with Tiffany Anderson

Saturday, July 27, 9am-12pm

Transform random found objects into art that resembles life or could be totally imaginative in design. May add paint for interest. All ages.

Narrative Collage with Lauren Burkey

Wednesday, July 31, 5-8pm

Learn the fun of mixing collage images with acrylic paint on canvas. This finished piece will earn a spot in your most visited room of the house! All ages.

Mixed Media Landscapes with Heidi Hankley

Friday, August 2, 5-8:30pm

Find inspiration in the colors and rolling hills surrounding Grandview and relax at the end of the week! Using a wide array of collage materials and water--based mediums, you will learn how to layer elements to create a pair of mixed media landscape pieces. Best for teens and above.

Pinch Pot Pets with Heidi Hankley

Saturday, August 3, 9-11am

Create the pet of your dreams in this clay hand--building class. We'll start with a simple pinch pot, then add clay embellishments, textures, and color to bring your creations to life! All ages welcome but young artists should bring an adult helper. Glazed and fired pieces will be ready for pick up at Grandview a few weeks after the class.

Watercolor with Kathy King

Wednesday, August 7, 9am-12pm

This class is an introduction to color theory and basic watercolor techniques. You will learn how to compose a quality watercolor in a few hours to bring your piece home ready for the frame. Teens and above.

Tie Dye with Ruth Vander Horck

Friday, August 9, 5-8:30pm

Explore fun tie-dye techniques of folding, twisting and binding fabrics with rubber bands, pennies, thread, clips and clothespins. Students might want to bring to a pre-washed T-shirt or old clothing items to repurpose for reuse. We are using fiber-reactive dyes that work well with a high content of plant fibers such as cotton, rayon and linen. Prayer flags & cotton hankies will be provided. All ages
